

BRUSSELS BRIEF

03/2014

Upcoming event: "Türkiye - Back to old days? The current state of EU-Turkey relations", 18 February 2014

The Turkish government's agenda to push through a number of controversial laws will undo several key reforms that have been accomplished over the last decade. Our expert meeting will analyze the current situation in the country and its impact on EU-Turkey relations.

Upcoming event: "Moving beyond polemics: The real value of the transatlantic relationship", 19 February 2014

How should we assess the status of the transatlantic relationship? Will EU-US unity persist on Iran? Will calls for an anti-spying regime complicate the transatlantic partnership and how can further turbulences be avoided?

Upcoming event: "TTIP: Towards an EU-US free trade deal - But what's in it for our partners?", 5 March 2014

Talks for a free trade deal might take longer than initially foreseen, but negotiations seem to be on the right track to conclude in what will become the most far-reaching free trade deal. What will be the consequences for the EU's and USA's trade partners?

FNF Greece: "Grecovery" rechtzeitig vor den Wahlen?

Der erste Primärüberschuss Griechenlands seit langem, griechische Regierungsvertreter, die sich in ihren Erfolgsgeschichten überbieten, ein verheerender Anti-Korruptionsbericht der EU-Kommission - und ein deutscher Finanzminister, der einem dritten Hilfspaket das Wort redet. Man muss nicht alles verstehen, was derzeit in und um Griechenland herum passiert.

European Solidarity on Trial - is there Friendship after Money?

Solidarity among its member states should be a given in a stable and successful European Union - but are large redistribution mechanisms per se an expression of solidarity?
